DRIVE

Pam said. Took one look at her face didn't ask what's wrong said I'll take the baby you get in your car and go and she did in the rain in the squall and it carried her out into the hills where the windshield wipers couldn't keep up with the storm with the years of study and pleasing back when she thought she would be someone. She drove she was sobbing for waste and for what and when she was done she dried woman's eyes turned around in the rain and drove home.
