Dear Editor Who Apologized for Taking Six Months to Reject My Poems and Said They Came Close

I was wondering how close? Close as a basketball rimming in and out at the end of the Celtics game last night for the win, or close like how the moon is close to the earth, compared say to the nearest galaxy? Or was it close the way my wife lies next to me at night, almost no space between our bodies, so I can't tell whether sometimes it is she or I that is breathing.
